Guest Speaker Jared Diamond, author of the newly published "The World Until Yesterday" - a sequel to his Pulitzer Prize winning "Guns, Germs, and Steel" and "Collapse", both best sellers, offering sweeping, brilliant descriptions of how geography and environment shape the destiny of nations. His knowledge and insights are awesome. The new book explores what we can learn from traditional societies.

Join in a conversation with Dr. Diamond and enjoy a big, festival style, walk around food and wine tasting, showcasing the delicious Chardonnays and Pinot Noirs of Green Valley, our great community of chefs and artisanal producers, with live music and a 3D printer demonstration courtesy of Make Magazine.

TICKETS

$50 General Admission – limited to 250 guests.
$250 VIP Meet & Greet with Dr. Diamond at the home of Audrey & Barry Sterling where Sparkling Wine and California caviar will be served – limited to 100 guests.

RSVP

Net proceeds will benefit National Geographic, celebrating its 125th Anniversary, inspiring people to care about the planet since 1888.
